PERSPECTIVES

MBA-CGM & PGPX –CGM: A Dual Program

Good governance practices are in demand across the globe for value creation, risk mitigation, brand equity and corporate reputation. Despite having professional workforce, a lot of successful executives in the organization lack required managerial and good governance skills. Therefore, for a sustainable existence in this competitive era, organizations must have executives who can manage their people, planet and profit efficiently and effectively.

To bridge the existing void, IIPA and FEB jointly offer a Dual MBA programme in Corporate Governance and Management by providing experiences of India and Europe. This uniquely designed programme will help the participants to understand the global environment and equip them with the required governance and managerial skills.

WHY TO ATTEND

Global Exposure, Recognition, Curriculum and focus on Corporate Governance are the four distinct features of the programs which makes it unique.

Focus on Corporate Governance

- Focused comprehensive study of corporate governance from financial, social, and business perspectives.
- Each module is strengthened through the sharing of best practices in modern day management and corporate governance.
- Provides an understanding of the regulatory, structural development and emerging trends.
- Opportunity to take up a research issue on Corporate Governance

Global Exposure

- Uniquely designed and delivered across two countries, India and Slovenia.
- Six months stay in both the continent gives an immense opportunity to understand and experience cross-cultures.
- Emphasizes on learning beyond the classrooms as it combines theoretical as well as practical knowledge.
- Gaining rich experience and diverse viewpoints with cross-cultural insights, expose you to the best practices from around the world.

Global Curriculum

- Understand the best practices in Europe and India.
- Skill honing in two key fields i.e., corporate governance and management of organizations.
- Covering major business areas at the advanced level, i.e., Strategic Management, Decision Science, Operations, Marketing, Business Law, Finance, Human Resource, Information Management and Others.

Global Recognition

- Internationally accredited MBA degree will be awarded by the University of Maribor, Slovenia a premier European university.
- PGPX- CGM diploma by a premier renowned institute in public administration in India, i.e., IIPA, an Autonomous Institute of Government of India.
- Course is accredited by the European ECBE accreditation and the US ACBSP accreditation.
